The Check Collector is issued four times a year for members of The American Society of Check Collectors, Inc. Subscription only by membership. Dues are $10.00 per year. Outside U.S.A., Canada and Mexico, add $2.00 per year. Send address changes to: The Secretary, ASCC, PO Box 577, Garrett Park, MD, 20896. All rights reserved.

To our members:

Write something for The Check Collector! We need articles about checks and check-related subjects. See the list of 32 areas of collecting interest on the Secretary's Page for ideas.

We retype all material. Photos require an original or a good, clear, black and white copy. Original checks sent in are copied and returned carefully and promptly. Finished check photos are 7" wide and/or 2 1/2" high.

Small, interesting 'filler' material and items of less than one page are always welcome. Any questions, ask the Editor.

To our advertisers:

Deadline for advertising copy to run in the November 1993 issue of The Check Collector is November 12, 1993.

The Check Collector is an effective means to reach the check collecting hobby and our membership of collectors and dealers of checks and related financial documents. It contains feature articles about checks and check collecting and news about the hobby.

Advertising orders must be paid in advance and shall be restricted to checks and to check related fiscal documents, publications, accessories and supplies. The ASCC accepts advertising in good faith, reserving the right to edit copy.

ASCC assumes no financial responsibility for typographical errors in advertising. However, it will reprint that portion of an advertisement in which the typographical error appeared upon prompt notification of such error.

All copy for ads must be camera ready.
Advertising rates are as follows:

One quarter page	$25.00/issue
Business card size	$10.00/issue

EDITORIAL

For some years now, the total membership of ASCC has remained approximately the same. We have added some members each quarter and have seen some fail to renew at the end of a year. The members we have added during this time were due to the work of a very few of our members.

One fact that continually surprises officers of ASCC is that many new members have not known of the existence of ASCC and upon learning of it, have joined at once! There are many check collectors out there just waiting to be asked to join.

Have you ever noticed that hoards of checks numbering several hundreds enter the market from time to time and then gradually disappear from the scene? Later, a few may show up, widely dispersed about the country. The number of items in some of these hoards are many times the total membership in ASCC. Surely, there are many others out there interested in checks.

These changing times make it necessary for our Society to keep up with current practices. Our dues are very modest when compared to similar societies. Our total membership is very small when compared to similar groups. Given the facts above, it becomes obvious that we should greatly increase our membership among check collectors or dissolve. At one time our mailing list was about double our current numbers, so it has been done before.

More members mean more check collecting, buying, selling, trading, studies and a viable ASCC. More members mean more articles and a chance to make some long considered improvements in The Check Collector.

Our thanks to Hugh Daughterty, Lee Poleske, Warren Anderson, Douglas McDonald and other dealers who have put our application form or inserted information about our Society in their catalogs or books.

So there you have it. We must each talk up check collecting and do a favor for a friend or acquaintance by helping them to become a member.

Our Society needs you and it needs more members. We are already half-way there. A membership application is included in this issue. Whom do you plan to talk to and invite to join us?

Happy Collecting.

RN FACSIMILE (RN-FAC) CHECKS

by John J. O'Hare

Joseph Eisenstein, (who coined the term "RN-FAC"), Ray Ekeblad and Ed Lipson have written articles on this subject. However, nothing has appeared in The Check Collector since 1989. Perhaps our newer members will appreciate the following information which will be illustrated with some RN-FACs from my collection that I have not seen illustrated before.

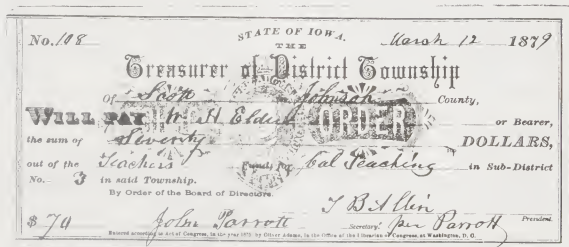

Figure 1 (above) is a confirmation of Mr. Giacomelli's theory, in that a revenue stamp was not required on an item issued by a governmental body.

The Civil War resulted in a need for additional revenues. Congress passed an Act which President Lincoln signed in 1862, that included a requirement that all checks, promissory notes, drafts and related documents were to bear a revenue stamp of a specified amount. Revenue stamps appeared in two forms: adhesive revenue stamps, similar to postage stamps to be affixed to the document and stamp designs which were imprinted directly on the paper which was used for the document. Both forms of stamps were required until July 1, 1882. Due to revenue needs caused by the Spanish-America War, stamps were again required by the Revenue Act of 1898 and stamps of both forms were used until 1901.

In the April 1971 issue of The American Revenuer, the journal of the American Revenue Association, Mr. Andrew Giacomelli advanced the theory that "it took a few years for people to get over the idea that a check, to be considered "good", had to have some kind of stamp-like design on it". There is enough evidence, I believe, to make us adopt this theory. This information was written by Joseph Eisenstein in the January 1973 issue of The Check List.

Various issues of The Check List and The Check Collector.

Bearer checks (checks drawn payable on sight to the holder and not requiring endorsement) have been used in several countries as a substitute during shortages in the supplies of paper money and also, for shortages of coins available to the public to make change in ordinary transactions. The checks used during those times are a part of the financial history of those countries and are now being sought by collectors.

In 1922, inflation had started in Germany and there was an ever increasing need for ever higher denominations of currency. Banks issued some bearer checks in the race to keep ahead of the falling value of the German mark. These checks first appeared in a design similar to checks currently in use. Later, as inflation increased, checks had to be issued with greater speed and in greater numbers. The amounts of the checks in words and figures began to be fixed and printed.

When arranged chronologically, checks used during the German inflation will indicate the acceleration and the severity of the inflation. Figures 1-A and 1-B show the face and back of a small size, bearer check for 1,000 marks issued by the Gemeinde-Sparkasse Wurzbach on 3 November, 1922. This check is carefully drawn and is printed on watermarked paper. Note the number of bank stamps and endorsements.

Nine months later on 13 August, 1923, inflation had really started to get out of control. The bearer check issued by Die Deutsche Bank Filiale Duisburg in the amount of five million (5,000,000) marks is shown in Figure 2. This check is printed on the face side only on watermarked paper and required but the customary two official bank signatures to be completely drawn. The left end vertical inscription includes the word "Notgeld" (Emergency Money).

As shown in Figure 3, Die Volksbank Neustadt in Baden on 26 October, 1923, issued bearer checks in the amount of twenty billion (20,000,000T) marks. The "T" indicated "Thousand" and was used because the writer ran out of space for the zeros! The check is printed in a greenish tint on paper with a diagonal line watermark.

On 2 November, 1923, as shown in Figure 4, the Spar- & Kreditbank in Oehringen issued a bearer check that required no endorsement in the amount of one hundred billion (100,000,000,000) marks. It is printed on greenish tint paper and on the face side only. It required only the customary two official bank signatures to be completely drawn.

As if not to be outdone, on 8 November, 1923, Die Volksbank Neustadt in Baden issued the bearer check shown in Figure 5 in the amount of two hundred billion (200,000,000,000) marks. Reference to the date and amount of the check of this same bank shown in Figure 3 will indicate the unbelievable increase of this inflation in one month.

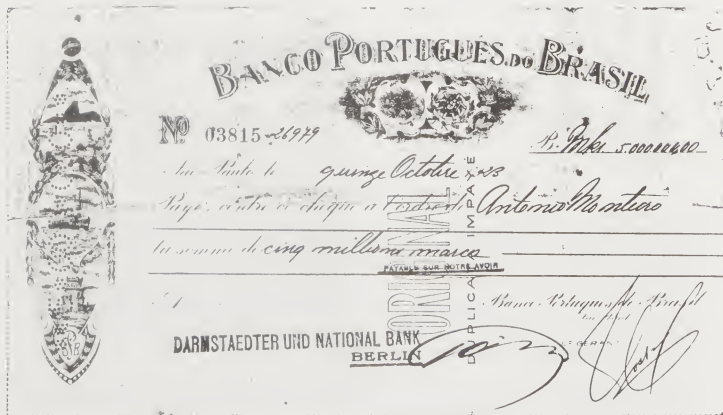

The German inflation caused a runaway increase in the denomination amount of currency and checks. This is shown in the preceding checks. It also caused a realization that, in an inflation, the speed of transactions had to be taken into account.

Figure 6 shows a draft of the Banco Portugues do Brasil in San Paulo, Brazil, drawn on the Darmstaedter und National Bank in Berlin, Germany for five million (5,000,000) marks and dated 15 October, 1933. This draft was never presented for payment when it reached Germany in November, 1933, most likely because the value of five million marks at that time was not worth the effort or value to obtain.

Figure 6

It is interesting to wonder what advantages these checks had over currency notes. Those who endured this inflation in Germany have many stories to tell. It appears that the use of a check eliminated the need to carry suitcases full of cash notes, which could remain in the bank. Also, if a checking account had sufficient balance or acceptable credit, a check could be drawn at a specific moment in time to meet the exact amount of current value.

Bearer checks were used in Bolivia in 1984. Figure 7 shows such a check issued by the Banco Central of Bolivia for one hundred thousand (100,000) bolivianos. All of the design and writing on the check was reproduced by printing for speed of issue. This type of check has been widely used in the last days of an inflation, as they can be produced much more quickly and cheaply than the regular notes of the same denomination. This note was valued at $50 in U.S. funds when issued in 1984. Quantities were available at some coin shows a few years later for fifty cents each as collectibles.

In Italy in 1976-77, there developed a severe shortage of the subsidiary coins used to make change. Tourists on toll roads at the time have stories to tell of tendering the usual thousand lire notes to pay tolls and being offered a choice of Chiclets, postage stamps, coupons, etc., as there were no small coins available for change. To meet this need, "miniassegni", or circulating bearer checks requiring no endorsements were issued by banks and financial institutions in cooperation with business and merchant organizations. They were denominated generally in multiples of 50 lire and served well the purposes intended. They were valid only within Italy. Figure 8 shows one of the multitude of varieties of these checks which appear in Italian numismatic catalogs.

When you finish this issue of The Check Collector, write us to let us know what you think. Are we covering the areas of interest to you? What would you like to see more of? Less of?

Take an evening to write an article for our next issue. If something interests you, it will most likely interest others. You are our best source of information and news.

AUTOGRAPHS ON CHECKS

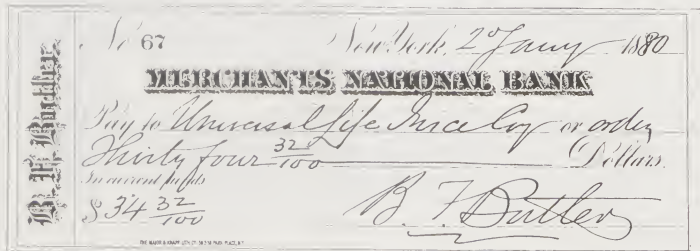

collected by Sanford Mock

Another fine selection of autographed checks has been sent in by Sandy Mock.

The first item is an 1871 warrant on the Utah Southern Railroad Company and signed by Brigham Young as its President. Brigham Young was a Mormon leader and the first Governor of the Utah Territory.

The next item is a personalized check on the Merchants National Bank of New York signed by B.F. Butler. Due to the color of the RN-G1 revenue stamp on this check, it failed to reproduce. Benjamin F. Butler was a Major General in the Union Army and led the occupation of New Orleans in 1862. The resentful actions of the women of New Orleans against the members of the occupying army caused General Butler to issue his Order No. 28, the wording of which so intimidated the women of New Orleans that they no longer insulted or annoyed any Union soldier or officer. But the Southern newspapers called Butler "Beast Butler" and Confederate President Jeff Davis issued a proclamation sentencing Butler to death.

Autographed checks of Presidents of the United States and of other leaders in the government are very popular items these days. The first one shown here is a check of President Richard Nixon drawn on the Riggs National Bank.

BEGINNER'S LUCK AND SPECIMEN CHECKS

by Gerald Boone

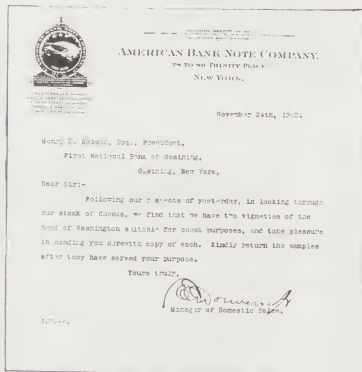

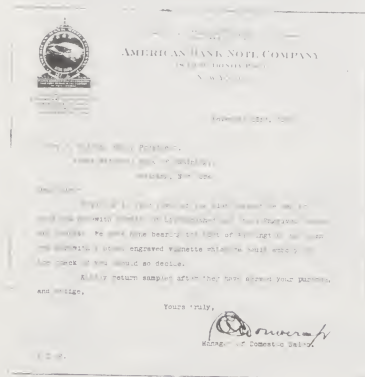

We have all heard of the term "Beginner's Luck", such as associated with a new bettor at the race track, etc. It can also be associated with collectors. Having collected license plates for 25 years, I know how this works out. It is usually a new collector that gets the plate I have been seeking for years, like one from Vatican City.

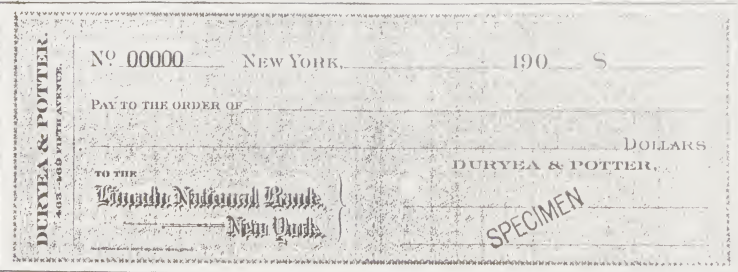

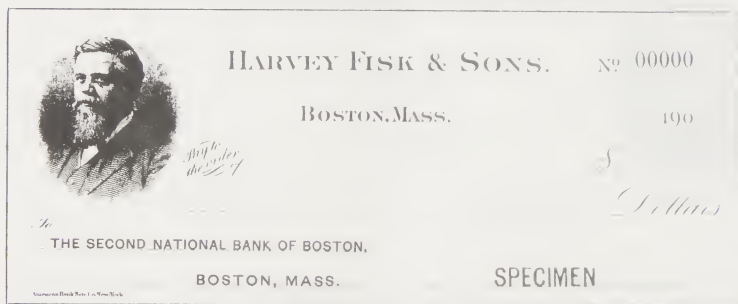

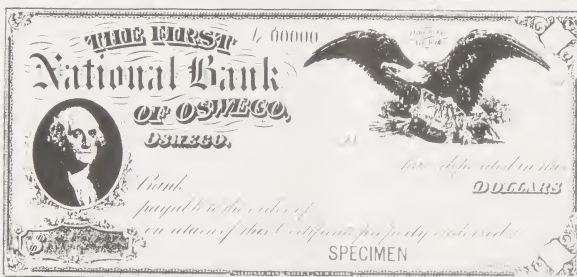

Not having collected checks for even a whole year, my acquisition of the checks and other items shown in this article we can also attribute simply to "beginner's luck". I did, in fact, get these from a license plate collector!

I think we all know what are specimen (or sample) checks. The material I acquired was accompanied by letters from American Bank Note Company and Stephens Lithographing & Engraving Co. in answer to requests for samples of their checks. Included in this group are two steel engraved vignettes of George Washington as examples of what ABNC had of Washington that could be used on a check, as is mentioned in their letter. (Note that the larger of the two has "Continental Bank Note Co." printed under the vignette and the smaller has "Jocelyn, Draper, Welsh & Co., New York". The larger is used in the design of the face of the current US $1 note and also, on the National Bank Co. of Oswego check pictured.)

The group included a total of 11 checks from ABNC; one from Homer Lee Bank Note Co., New York; one from National Bank Note Co., New York and eleven from Stephens Litho. & Eng., St. Louis.

I must admit that, while I knew of specimen checks, I never considered collecting them. I thought that they were unobtainable as I had never seen any offered for sale in the lists that I had received. This group should make a nice start. Hopefully, I will be able to add more specimen checks to my collection in the future. Following are some of the interesting items in the group.

SPECIMEN CHECKS DESIGNED FOR USE WITH ADHESIVE REVENUE STAMPS

by Robert A. Sperry

Specimen checks are enjoying a popularity among check collectors. Articles in connection with specimen checks with imprinted revenue stamps and for use without any stamp have appeared in The Check Collector. To continue the series, there were specimen checks designed for use with the adhesive revenue stamps which first appeared in the latter part of 1862. I was pleased to find three such specimens among an accumulation of specimen checks, all made by "The Major & Knapp Eng. Mfg. & Lith. Co. 71 Broadway N.Y." All are printed on a light white card stock and each shows evidence of having been pasted for display on a paper background, probably a sample book.

Many specimen checks and related items of the printer, Major & Knapp, were designed using spurious names so that even a sample of a specimen check could not be drawn by a counterfeiter without some wording arousing suspicion.

Figure 2 is a specimen of a Certificate of Deposit designed with an ornate bordered space for an adhesive revenue stamp. Note this instrument is designated "in current funds" and "in like funds".

SHOWS PAST AND SHOWS FUTURE

by John J. O'Hare

MEMPHIS - IPMS: Always the largest and best show for the paper collector. This year was the best of times and the worst of times. The worst is that I hoped to see my friend, Bob Pyne, again, but he did not make it. He is remembered by his many friends.

The best of the best were the favorable opinions heard from most dealers and collectors. The Memphis Branch of the Federal Reserve Bank of Saint Louis held a special exhibit of fifty items found by the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco when they cleared their vault during a renovation in 1992. As always, there were meetings of many societies and great exhibits. Coleman Liefer, our secretary, chaired our meeting as I was late. He did a commendable job.

As my own interests include early checks, Western material and revenue imprinted paper, I was delighted with the opportunity to talk with the authors of two popular new books which I would recommend to collectors:

"Interesting Notes About Territories", by Roger H. Durand has excellent information about western expansion from the original thirteen states. There is information regarding Indian Territory, Jefferson Territory, Northwest Territory and Orleans Territory. I would have liked to see information included regarding Deseret and Franklin Territories, as well as Kentucky, Maine and Vermont. All in all, an excellent book, well worth acquiring. Ordering information from: Roger H. Durand, P.O. Box 186, Rehoboth, MA 02769.

"A Catalog of Nevada Checks 1860-1933", by Douglas McDonald. Excellent information about Nevada Revenue Stamp Taxes and the infamous, spurious, Wells Fargo & Co. Clearing House handstamp. This round handstamp with "Carson/Nev." in the center is a forgery which has been applied to many good fiscal documents, ruining them for collectors. The book lists thousands of checks, drafts, corporate and territorial and state warrants, exchanges, certificates of deposit and other fiscal documents, along with a rarity and price guide. I would have liked to see more illustrations. It is another excellent book which will prove necessary for the Western collector. Ordering information from: Castenholz & Sons, 1055 Hartzell St., Pacific Palisades, CA 90272

R.M. Smythe & Co., Inc. conducted their usual fine auction. And to those who were at our meeting, yes, I was lucky enough to get the Bank of North America, August 6, 1789, one penny note that I talked about at the meeting. Now is the time to think about a trip to Memphis in June, 1994. An excellent choice for a family vacation.

BALTIMORE - ANA: With a registration of over 16,000, the third highest at ANA since 1970, most dealers I spoke with seemed very satisfied. I had business with Art Kagin, whom I have known and had business with for about thirty years. Also, Paul Cunningham of Tecumseh, MI, who had a nice selection of checks. And, of course, Judith and Claud Murphy, who deal in checks, obsoletes and other paper. Paul and Judith are ASCC members. Judith has served as an ASCC Vice President and is presently the President of the Society of Paper Money Collectors. The ASCC was listed on the convention program for a meeting, not scheduled by ASCC, on Thursday. I was on a side trip to the Bureau of Engraving and Printing in Washington at that time. Later, while I was at the Murphy's table looking through some books of checks, I met four gentlemen who appeared at the unscheduled meeting that never was held. We are sending them applications and other information with the hope that they will join. Believe me, we will hold an ASCC meeting at any show I am at in the future.

Story within the story: Judith Murphy introduced me to Mr. L. W. Vosloh who is a Museum Specialist in American Numismatics at the Smithsonian Institution. They both urged me to check (pun intended) the Smithsonian Institution's non-competitive exhibit at the show. What a display! Four cases of presidential checks and two cases of checks of famous Americans. I shall not take space to describe the exhibit as Mr. Vosloh indicated he would write an article for a future issue of The Check Collector. I will say that every President from Washington to Carter was represented, with the exception of Zachary Taylor and Franklin Pierce. Mr. Vosloh said the Smithsonian would like to obtain checks written, or endorsed by, Taylor and/or Pierce. If you can help, or offer information regarding the existence of such checks, please contact: L.W. Vosloh, NNC, M A H 4000, Smithsonian Institution, Washington, DC 20560, M R C 609. His telephone is 202-357-1798 during business hours (Eastern Standard Time).

The 103rd Anniversary Convention of the ANA will be in Detroit, MI, July 27-31, 1994.

In order to support and advance our segment of the numismatic hobby, why not establish a theme and show off your collection by exhibiting in future shows?

Some future shows which will have a significant number of participants specializing in paper items:

November 12-14, 1993. The National and World Paper Money Convention at the Cervantes Convention Center, 801 Convention Plaza, St. Louis, MO.

January 6-9, 1994. The 39th F.U.N. Show and Convention at the Orange County Convention Center, Orlando, FL. This show is fun in the sun, "Where the Action is in January".

I hope everyone saw Arlie Alabaugh's article in the August 1993 issue of Bank Note Reporter entitled "Gold? Silver? Paper? Checks Could Pay It All". A story about designated checks with eight interesting illustrations of these checks.

A.S.C.C. CHECK POOL UPDATE*by Harry R. Johnson, Sr.*

Summer is over and kids are back in school!

Since our last report, these helpful members have donated checks to the A.S.C.C. Check Pool:

Melvin H. Lembke
Derek Bender
P.C. McMichen
Coleman Liefer
Harry Johnson, Sr.

200+ Wisconsin checks.
100+ Miscellaneous checks.
Several thousand Florida checks.
Several miscellaneous checks.
1000+ Florida checks.

These checks are a very welcome addition to the Check Pool. We are so short of inventory of checks from many states that we are unable to fill many requests without including an excess of duplicates. If you have any unwanted personal checks in your files, we can use them. We urgently need checks from most of the various states and we have people waiting for packets they have requested. We urgently request our members to donate their own old used checks that are no longer needed in their files to the Check Pool to keep it alive and successful. Whether you donate one check or a carton, we can use them all.

The following members have pending requests we need checks to fill:

Dr. Allan Hauck
Richard L. Biemer
Melvin H. Lembke
Patricia A. Osborne
Fred Bolhuis

We appreciate their patience. As soon as these orders can be filled without including two or three duplicates for every check, they will be sent out. Help us so that we won't have to keep a youngster or new member waiting.

New members have asked how the ASCC Check Pool operates. The Check Pool sends out 100 check packets free. We ask only for a $2.00 donation for each packet to cover postage and handling.

I am appealing to our members to please send in some kind of donation. If we do not receive enough checks for these packets, we as a society will have failed many future members. If we wish to see more check collectors, we have to get them started.

Send any donations of checks, requests and comments to:

ASCC SECRETARY'S REPORT

The report of the ASCC meeting held in connection with the 1993 Memphis International Paper Money Show is contained elsewhere in this issue. The show will be held in 1994 on June 17-19. The National and World Paper Money Convention will be held in St. Louis on November 12-14, 1994. Both shows are excellent sources for checks.

This report contains all changes received through September 4, 1993. The total number of members is 369.

Herb Latuchio AUCTIONS

Allow us to
ourselves...

We are primarily auctioneers of stamps, but in recent auctions we have been offering more and more lots of checks, documents & fiscal paper. To our pleasant surprise, we have found that stamp collectors don't just collect stamps. Our November 27 auction will contain 100's of items that we think will pique your interest. There are numerous Stocks and Bonds, including many Specimens and Proofs; Autographs, some of which appear on documents; Revenue Stamped Paper; Vignette Engravings and Proofs of the various early security printers; and U.S. and foreign Revenue Stamps and Documents. You'll also discover our usual extensive selection of U.S. and Foreign Stamps & Covers, Post Cards, Trade Cards, Americana and Literature.

Our fine catalog, loaded with photos, is yours for $3 ($5 outside U.S. & Canada), only to cover the cost of postage. This handsome catalogue is otherwise free. You're going to love getting to know us.
